

LEGENDS OF GREYHAWK GUIDE

Version 1.1
Last Updated June 1, 2026
Next Update: August 31, 2026

This guide covers rules specific to playing Legends of Greyhawk, an ongoing DUNGEONS & DRAGONS organized play campaign set in the world of Greyhawk. Visit the Legends of Greyhawk official website for more information.

WHAT YOU NEED TO PLAY

Legends of Greyhawk uses the newest rules for D&D fifth edition (the 5.5 rules). To participate in the campaign as a player, you need the following:

- Player's Handbook or D&D Beyond Basic Rules
- A D&D Beyond account or a printed character

SOURCES ALLOWED

All character options from the following products are allowed. Please see the "Additional Sources" section for additional options from other releases.

- Player's Handbook
- D&D Beyond Basic Rules

CHARACTER CREATION

All Legends of Greyhawk characters begin at level 1. To create a character, follow these steps.

- 1: Visit the Character Builder. Head to the Character Builder tool on D&D Beyond. Select Standard or Quickbuilder from the options available. For Standard build characters, go to Step 2. Go to Step 3 if you are creating a character on paper or with the Quickbuilder.
- 2: Select Available Rules. On the Character Preferences screen, uncheck all boxes under "Sources" except 5.5e Core Rules and 5.5e Expanded Rules. Uncheck the "Enable All Partnered Content" box under "Partnered Content." The campaign does not use content marked "5e," "Legacy" or "Partnered Content."
- 3: Continue Creating Your Character. Follow all remaining steps to create a level 1 character. You may not choose random generation for your ability scores (listed as "Manual/Rolled"). These steps are also listed in the Player's Handbook or D&D Beyond Basic Rules. You may not choose an evil alignment for your character.
- 4: Select a Location (Optional). On your character sheet, under the Notes tab, write in the location you want your character to be affiliated with under "Organizations." You may choose any location listed in the five major regions present in the "Greyhawk Gazetteer" section of the Dungeon Master's Guide.

PLAYING ADVENTURES

You may play any Legends of Greyhawk adventures appropriate for your character's level. Each character may only play each adventure once.

TREASURE

During the play of Legends of Greyhawk adventures, you may obtain treasure useable during the adventure; this treasure is not retained at the end of the adventure. At the conclusion of the adventure, you are offered a choice of treasure, which may include magic items. You can only possess a certain number of magic items depending on your level.

MAGIC ITEMS BY LEVEL

Character Level	Magic Item Limit
1-4 (Tier 1)	5 Common, 1 Uncommon or Rare
5-10 (Tier 2)	5 Common, 3 Uncommon, 1 Rare or Very Rare

GAINING LEVELS

At the conclusion of a Legends of Greyhawk adventure, you earn advancement towards your next level. You can note your progress on your character sheet in the Notes tab under "Other."

LEVEL ADVANCEMENT

Character Level	Number of Adventures to Next Level
1	1
2	2
3	3
4	4
5-10	4

When you gain a new level, use the Fixed Hit Points by Class table present in the Player's Handbook or D&D Beyond Basic Rules.

REBUILDING YOUR CHARACTER

Whenever you gain a level, you may rebuild any aspects of your character determined during character creation (including starting equipment). Any rewards gained or purchases made through play may not be rebuilt.

You may also rebuild your character once after a new source with character options has been released. See the "Additional Sources" section.

FAQ

Where can I play Legends of Greyhawk adventures?

Anywhere! Legends of Greyhawk adventures are available monthly for purchase on D&D Beyond. In addition, check with your local game store or find a convention near you to get started playing. Visit the Legends of Greyhawk official website for more information.

What locations are available for my character to select from?

While you may choose any location listed in the Greyhawk section of the Dungeon Master's Guide, adventures will be more commonplace in the supported locations listed below, and having a character hailing from one of them may provide you with additional benefits.

LOCATIONS OF LEGENDS OF GREYHAWK

The current list of supported locations is as follows:

- Bandit Kingdoms
- County of Urnst
- Domain of Greyhawk
- Duchy of Urnst
- Furyondy
- Highfolk
- Lordship of the Isles
- Shield Lands
- Veluna
- Verbobonc
- Wild Coast

What if I don't want to advance my character, so I can continue to play at a certain level?

When you earn advancement, you may decline to advance if you wish. If you decline advancement, you gain no treasure from the adventure but may still earn other rewards (such as Marks of Prestige).

What if I'm at my magic item limit, and I want to select a magic item at the conclusion of an adventure?

If you are offered the opportunity to select a magic item at the end of the adventure and you are at your maximum number of items, you may gain a magic item but must immediately choose to remove a magic item (either one you already possess or the new item).

What happens if my character dies?

If you have no means of reviving the character by the end of the adventure, the character remains dead. If the party can retrieve the body and return to a town-sized settlement or larger, they may seek out spellcasting services to have a Raise Dead spell cast to revive the character. The spell costs 2,500 GP. Characters present during the adventure may contribute GP towards this cost. The dead character's GP may also be used.

I received a physical certificate and/or magic item card after I played my adventure. What's so special about it?

Physical representations of rewards are only available to players with verified D&D Beyond accounts, so having a D&D Beyond account may get you a nice memento of your play! In addition, most magic item cards are tradable with other players who also possess a physical tradable card.

How does trading physical magic item cards work?

You can trade magic items with other players at the conclusion of the adventure, so long as the characters that have the items both participated in the same adventure. Note the trade on your character sheet in the "Notes" section. You cannot trade magic items with other characters you own.

How do I Dungeon Master Legends of Greyhawk adventures?

Talk with an organizer looking for Dungeon Masters at the event you wish to attend. You should ensure you have access to the latest version of the core rules (either the three core rulebooks or the D&D Beyond Basic Rules). Your organizer will inform you which adventures to prepare. You can also purchase Legends of Greyhawk adventures on D&D Beyond.

Are there rewards for Dungeon Mastering Legends of Greyhawk adventures?

Dungeon Masters can apply advancement and select any one non-random reward to apply to a character for each adventure session they complete as a DM. In the case of Dungeon Mastering multiple sessions of the same adventure, DMs may not apply advancement and rewards from the same adventure more than once to the same character, but they can apply advancement and rewards to a different character.

I'm a convention organizer and I'd like to run Legends of Greyhawk adventures. Do you have anything special for me beyond what is on D&D Beyond?

We have special Legends of Greyhawk adventures for approved organizers that are not available on D&D Beyond. Head to the Requesting D&D Convention Support page, located on the Wizards of the Coast customer service portal. At the bottom of the page, there is a link to the support request form. Fill it out, and our organizer liaison will contact you about your request.

All requests for Legends of Greyhawk adventure content should be placed at least 60 days prior to the first day of the convention. The organizer liaison will request a link to your event's code of conduct that applies in the space where D&D play will occur. After you are approved, the organizer liaison will inform you what adventure content is available.

ADDITIONAL SOURCES

In addition to the Player's Handbook and D&D Beyond Basic Rules, other sources also have character options available.

This guide will be updated with each future Wizards-published official D&D product release containing character options.

AVAILABILITY

Character options are available on the first day of early access to a product (the date available for D&D Beyond Master Tier subscribers and first on-sale date at Wizards Play Network stores).

When a product becomes available as a source for Legends of Greyhawk, you may rebuild your character once without leveling (see “Rebuilding Your Character”) in-between adventures. This “free rebuild” must occur within 30 days of the first availability date for the source in Legends of Greyhawk.

NEW SOURCES

Each source lists what character options are available from it. If a source does not list an option present in the product, it is not currently available in the campaign.
